

4th Conference's on Geographic Information Systems and Spatial Analysis in Agriculture and Environment

Privacy Policy

What is General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The General Data Protection Regulation constitutes a new regulatory framework of European Union in the field in question. Its scope is to define the conditions of personal data processing aiming to protect the rights and liberties of the individuals and in particular the right to personal data protection.

Cookies' Policy

With the aim to optimize Conference's website operation and to upgrade the visitor's / user's browsing experience on it, the Institution and therefor the Conference Website collect identifiers of the visitors / users of the Website, using respective technologies, such as cookies and / or tracking Internet Protocol (IP) addresses.

What cookies are

Cookies are small text files which are saved by a website in our electronic device (PC, tablet, mobile phone, etc.) each time we are visiting it.

Cookies "remind" the website of your actions and preferences; therefore, their use relieves us of the obligation to re-register every time we visit it.

Furthermore, cookies contribute to the analysis of the website's use by each visitor / user as well as to the highlighting of any problems that the visitor / user encounters while browsing it.

Detailed information about cookies can be found at www.allaboutcookies.org.

Responsible for the Processing

The Organization informs that, during the 4th Conference of Geographic Information Systems and Spatial Analysis in Agriculture and Environment and for the purposes of a scientific event holding, participants' personal data are being processed in accordance with the applicable national legislation and the European Regulation 2016/67 for the protection of individuals against the processing of personal data and the free circulation of such data (General Regulation on Data Protection, hereinafter "the Regulation") as in force.

For any issue regarding the processing of personal data you can contact the Conference Organizer: email: giscongress@jaua.gr | contact numbers: 210 529 4091-4102.

Legal reasons for processing your personal data

The organization processes your personal data transparently according to the principles of legality, proportionality, confidentiality and integrity, limitation of purpose and accuracy, specific data retention time and data minimization.

The site is aimed at an adult audience (such as people looking for information about the event). The organization does not collect or intend to collect information from or about children.

- Right to revoke the consent: Finally, the Institution informs you that where the processing is based on your consent, you have the right to revoke it freely, without prejudice to the legality of the processing based on your consent, before revoking it. To revoke your consent, you can contact the email address [giscongress\[AT\]aua\[DOT\]gr](mailto:giscongress@aua.gr). We will make every effort to respond to your request within thirty (30) days of its submission. Considering the complexity of the request and the number of requests, the mentioned above deadline may be extended for an additional sixty (60) days, if deemed necessary, in which case we will inform you within the deadline of thirty (30) days.
- Right of Complaint: In case you consider that we have not sufficiently satisfied your request and the protection of your personal data is violated in any way, you can file a complaint through a special web portal to the Personal Data Protection Authority (Athens, 1-3 Kifissias Avenue, Athens). PC 115 23 | Tel: +30 210 6475600). Detailed instructions for submitting a complaint are provided on the Authority's website.

Personal data to be processed

Personal data are used for Conference's organisational and implementation purposes as well as for contacting with you.

Regarding the personal data we collect directly from you, we inform you that you must notify us of any change in your data without delay, as well as respond to any of our requests for updates.

In particular:

"Personal data" is any information concerning an identified or identifiable individual ("data subject"). An identifiable individual is the one whose identity can be ascertained, directly or indirectly, by reference to an identifier such as name, identity number, location data, online identifier or one or more identifiable factors such as individual's physical, physiological, genetic, psychological, economic, cultural, or social identity.

The Conference's Organizer and this website's Administrator acts as the person in charge of collecting and processing personal data that you voluntarily provide to him / her when you visit the Conference's website, when you use the website services (e.g. registration, newsletter, participation at the Conference as a Lecturer, etc.) or when you choose to contact the Institution and / or the Conference in any way.

You may choose to deny providing your personal data (personal data related to the use of Internet communication protocols are excluded; these are typically collected when you visit a website), however, in this case, some features of our site, including services provided through it, may not be available or may not work properly.

The aim is that the collected and processed personal data to be in line with the purpose for which they are intended, to be accurate, complete and to be processed legally and fairly and in transparency.
